

ATHLETE CODE OF CONDUCT

BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS: The Triton Swimming club holds the following behavioural expectations for all athletes, coaches, and volunteers of the swim club:

- Obey all the rules and regulations of Triton swim club, Swim Alberta and the facilities used both at practice and competitions.
- Be on deck on time for training sessions and meets, ready for warm up as directed by the coach.
- A commitment to the treatment of others with the utmost respect and dignity.
- A commitment to behaviours that will enhance the image of Triton Swimming. This includes no foul language, fighting, snapping towels, destruction of property and equipment, littering and bullying of any manner. This also includes cleaning up the area that you were sitting in at swim meets before going home.
- Be courteous and respectful at all times. Unruly or disrespectful behaviour is not acceptable either in the pool, on the deck, in the changing rooms or outside the pool area.
- A commitment to demonstrate sportsmanship and fair play at all times, and a commitment to ensure zero tolerance of sexist, racist, and/or discriminatory behaviours.
- Be considerate with their use of digital devices and social media. Use of a mobile phone, camera, or any photographic or video-recording device is not allowed in changing areas.

Consequences

If, for any reason, the Code of Conduct is not followed by the athlete(s), any [one or more] of the following steps may be taken by the Club:

- Request the athlete not attend team events
- Remove the athlete from the team, temporarily (suspension) or permanently

I have read, agree with and accept the terms and conditions above for the Triton Swimming Club. I am therefore subject to the club's rules.
